

2022 Marie-Louise Ansak Award

Recognizing Commitment, Compassion and Creativity

Call for Nominations

The National PACE Association (NPA) announces a call for nominations for the 2022 Marie-Louise Ansak Award. The award distinguishes a PACE employee who exemplifies the ideals of Marie-Louise Ansak, the founder of PACE.

In 1971, working as a consultant to the Chinatown-North Beach Health Care Planning and Development Corporation, Ansak completed a feasibility study recommending that housing and community services be pursued as an alternative to a neighborhood nursing home. On Lok was founded with a $2,000 federal grant. With creativity, foresight and dedication, Ansak was instrumental in directing and shaping On Lok from a small day health center into a nationally acclaimed model of community-based long-term care for the frail elderly.

The Marie-Louise Ansak Award recognizes the ingenuity, hard work and sacrifice of an individual PACE program employee who has worked to improve the quality of life for one or more frail older persons during the past year (July 2021 to June 2022).

The criteria for nominees are as follows:

- » demonstrated unselfishness, originality, innovation and creativity;
- » enhanced the PACE program, interdisciplinary team and participants;
- » made a difference in the life of one or more PACE participants; and
- » epitomized the concept of "team player."

Each organization may nominate one individual.
